NALS NOONTIME CLE – ELDER LAW
November 16, 2017 ~ 12:00 p.m. to 1:00 p.m.

"When I Need Your Help, I'll Let You Know" is a book written by Barbara Adler West and her father, Stephen Adler. Join us to hear about Barbara's nearly 30 years as an Elder Law attorney (email: bwest@insleebest.com) and the experience she and her father shared caring for Steve's wife and Barb's mother, Judy, who died last year after a long struggle with Alzheimer's. The book identifies the senior myths that the authors believe keep aging adults from making proactive, safe and sustainable choices about long term care. Written from the perspective of the senior and from the point of view of the adult caregiver. It provides resources for caregivers who are working to keep a senior at home despite the evidence that the situation is not working, and it includes a glossary of some of the key terms that pertain to elder care and fiduciary responsibilities.
